THE LIVEBOARD: the S/Y Palau Siren

The 40 metre S/Y Palau Siren is a luxurious, spacious liveboard that is customized with the underwater photographer and videographer in mind. Rooms are outfitted with individual computers including a 20" HD flatscreen monitor (workstations are networked) and multiple power sources. There is a covered outdoor dining area with gourmet chefs, spa services, onboard boutique, kayaks, and other amenities. The dive deck has designated areas for charging and preparation of your camera and video equipment. Nitrox is available for all certified Nitrox divers. Spaces on liveboard trip limited to 16 passengers!

THE RESORT: the Sea Passion Hotel

Jump on an airplane and you're off for a memorable adventure! At the Sea Passion Hotel, you and your family can relax, have a drink, listen to music, dance at the disco, feed the fish and watch the sunset while enjoying the beautiful, peaceful world of corals and tropical aquatic life. The hotel opened its doors in 2009, offering a combination of 68 suites, ocean view rooms and mountain view rooms, and offers a private white-sand beach, colorfully tiled swimming pool, gourmet restaurants, hip beach bar, and restful spa facility.

THE ISLAND: Palau – "The Beginning of Everything"

The Republic of Palau is inimitable. Populated by Micronesia's most sociable (and responsible) people, it's no surprise that parts of Palau are known as the 'beginning of everything', a template the rest of the world would do well to follow.

You don't have to get wet to enjoy Palau. On land the republic embraces Micronesia's richest flora and fauna: exotic birds fly around the islands, crocodiles slip through the mangrove swamps and orchids sprout profusely in backyards. The Palauan archipelago is incredibly diverse, encompassing the polyglot state of Koror; the marvellous Rock Islands; Micronesia's second-largest island, Babeldaob (the land that Pacific standard time forgot); Peleliu, once war ravaged, now just ravishing; tranquil, tiny Angaur; the coral atolls of Kayangel and Ngeruangel; and the remote South-West Islands.

THE DIVING: Something for everyone

No matter what type of diving attracts you, there is something for everyone - coral reefs, blue holes, wartime wrecks, hidden caves and tunnels, more than 60 vertical drop-offs to play with, and an astonishing spectrum of coral, fish, and rare sea creatures. There are also some outright miracles of evolution: giant clams that weigh a quarter of a ton, for example, and a lake teeming with 21 million softly pulsating, stingless jellyfish.
